While Supplies Last

Commodities Update:

- Panel products: OSB, after months of decreasing prices, seems to have built enough order files to control the price in a stable to upward direction. SYP plywood has firmed in pricing, but is not expected to be more than slightly higher in the next few weeks.
- Dimension lumber: SPF lumber has seen some noticeable increases the last few weeks, but no indication of the duration of these weekly increases. SYP(our treated species) gained a slight uptick recently as well.
- The Gypsum increase scheduled for mid February will turn out to be $.02 to $.025/square foot. The promised maximum increase for this year will not be more than $035/square foot for those planning future jobs. We will increase our retail prices by month end.
- Our fiberglass insulation increase previously reported will not be reflected in our retails until mid March.
- USG will increase price on Durock cement board products by 10% on February 11,2019.
- As reported last month, USG will increase ceiling panels by 8% and ceiling grid by 6% effective February 4, 2019.
- Cellulose insulation will be increasing by 7% on February 1, 2019. We'll raise our retails mid to late February.

Quote to Think About:

After all, our following of Jesus always has less to do with our words and more to do with our lives.

Brain Builder: See if you can figure it out!

What is brown, has a tail and head, but no legs?

New Inventory Items:

We've invested in a new paint tint machine and have brought in additional inventory in Valspar paints and Cabot stains. We hope to have the new machine up and running in the next few weeks and we'll be offering some attractive enticements to try our paint program

Words Worth Reading:

On making judgments about a person on a first impression-

After all, what can a first impression tell us about someone we've just met for a minute... for that matter, what can a first impression tell us about anyone? Why, no more than a chord can tell us about Beethoven, or a brushstroke about Botticelli. By their very nature, human beings are so capricious, so complex, so delightfully contradictory, that they deserve not only our consideration, but our reconsideration-and our unwavering determination to withhold our opinion until we have engaged with them in every possible setting at every possible hour.
