Commodities Update:

- As of this writing, OSB continues to fall-quite substantially overall from the high of this summer. SYP plywood has also come down from the summer, but the slide seems to have stalled at this point.
- Dimension lumber, specifically SPF is still giving ground on price, but not near the amount of previous weeks. In fact, 2X6 had a small increase. Southern Yellow Pine(our treated lumber species) is thought to be about at it's bottom.
- Fiberglass insulation is still scheduled to increase as much as 12% on 1/7/19.
- Vinyl windows from Atrium may rise as much as 5-8% on 1/1/19.
- Don't be surprised to see other millwork vendors raising prices on doors(both interior and exterior)and windows. We've received some announcements of a 7% increase from some vendors.
- Gypsum panel increase is still set for February of 2019. Details will be announced as we receive them.
- USG, our main gypsum vendor, has announced a 5% increase on all interior finish products(compound, etc.) on 1/1/19
- While they are increasing everything else, USG has announced the following acoustical increases for 2/4/19
 - Ceiling panels-8% (fiberglass panels 15%)
 - Ceiling Grid-6%
 - Specialty Ceilings-5-25%
- Steel stud Manufacturers will be trying for a 10% increase on 1/2/19.
- Trim –Tex who supplies us with vinyl trim products for drywall will raise their prices by 10% on 1/7/19.
- Some of our hand tool vendors, specifically Marshalltown(masonry/drywall tools) and MetalTech(scaffolding and related tools) will be raising prices early next year also, Metal Tech, by as much as 25%.

Quote to Think About:

“Our lives begin to end the day we become silent about things that matter”

-Martin Luther King Jr

New Inventory Items:

- We're making a running change on circular saw blades from DeWalt to Milwaukee.
- We're stocking a new assortment of snow shovels, pushers and ice scrapers from Suncoast.
- We have improved our assortment of Royal white PVC trims and moldings.
- From customer requests we've added a new laundry combo shut off valve.

Words Worth Reading:

The Buddhist teachings begin with this kind of exhortation: Do not forget your original whole-ness, your original goodness and beauty, and turn yourself toward what is good. Turn your heart toward what is good by cultivating forgiveness and compassion and mindfull presence. See the good in one another. Nelson Mandela said, “It never hurts to see the good in someone. They often act the better because of it.”
