Commodities Update:

- Dimension lumber: SPF lumber is seeing $40-50/MBF increases this week as of this writing due to rain and flood issues in British Columbia. Import duties from Canada may trigger another run up as other spruce species follow the Western lead. SYP lumber (and treated) seems to be remaining relatively stable for now with only minimal increases on some sizes.
- Panels: OSB pricing has remained fairly steady while SYP plywood is a toss up. There are indications that prices may fall further but the thicker panels (3/4") are tough to source and some mills say their order files are out to the end of December which generally means a rise in the market. You call it!
- After a short lived increase gypsum prices (for 1/2" and 5/8" FC) have fallen back to pre October increase prices. Green board and specialty boards maintained their increase.
- Our basement fiberglass blanket vendor will raise prices again by 12% on 1/1/22.
- As reported last month, bagged Portland and Masonry cements will increase by $.50 and $.25 per bag respectively on 1/1/21.
- We're seeing pretty large increases announced for interior door units in the range of 8-18% for early January.
- Steel products continue to climb in price with the scarcity of raw materials.

Brain Builder: See if you can figure it out!

A big box store sells screws in packs of six, nine and twenty only. What is the largest number of screws you can't buy in the store? (Incidentally, this wouldn't apply to Ilion Lumber. We sell almost all of our screws in the quantity you want to purchase-even if it's only one!

Words Worth Reading:

Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse. Rejoice with those who rejoice; mourn with those who mourn. Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud, but be willing to associate with people of low position. Do not be conceited.

Do not repay anyone evil for evil. Be careful to do what is right in the eyes of everybody. If it is possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone. Do not take revenge, my friends, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: "It is mine to avenge; I will repay," says the Lord. On the contrary: "If your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink..."

Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Romans 12:14-21
