Commodities Update:

- Dimension lumber/Panel products: As of this writing there are strong signs in the market place of a noticeable correction in costs-meaning there are, for most lumber products decreased prices offered at the mill level. How long this will last and how low it will go? I cannot speculate on that.
- Fiberglass insulation: Most manufacturers are raising prices by 10% on June 6. We will be raising our retails around mid July. Bagged portland and masonry cements will increase by $.75/bg and $.65/bg effective July 1.

New Inventory items:

- Build Block ICF's (Insulated Concrete Forms) available on a direct ship basis.
- Dewalt 20V cordless circular saw (baretool)
- CLC snapping hammer holder

"Nails? Hmm...let me think...OK, you need to catch the green tram to sector I-48. Pick up the brown tram at 1:15 and take it to the end of the line. Head west..."

Words Worth Reading:

In honor of Father's Day, Lyric's from "My Old Man" by Zac Brown Band (if you haven't heard it, you should It's a great song).

He was a giant
And I was just a kid
I was always trying
To do everything he did
I can still remember every lesson he taught me
Growing up learning how to be
Like my old man

He was a lion
We were our father's pride
But I was defiant
When he made me walk the line
He knew how to lift me up
And when to let me fall
Looking back, he always had a plan
My old man

My old man
Feel the callous on his hands
And dusty overalls
My old man
Now I finally understand
I have a lot to learn
From my old man
Now I'm a giant

Got a son of my own
He's always trying
To go everywhere I go
Do the best I can to raise him up the right way
Hoping that he someday wants to be
Like his old man

My old man
I know one day we'll meet again
As he's looking down
My old man
I hope he's proud of who I am
I'm trying to fill the boots of my old man

My old man

A DREAM DOESN'T BECOME REALITY THROUGH MAGIC; IT
TAKES SWEAT, DETERMINATION AND HARD WORK.
