Commodities Update:

- Panel products: OSB remains at what will be the low cost for the year. I don't see much of an immediate or large increase in the near future. SYP plywood has had small incremental increases each week and seems to be in a stronger position to continue so.
- Dimension lumber is still lingering on the low side, although the May Futures market printed upward to its limit which indicates those with knowledge think the market will be increasing noticeably by May.
- Our concrete block supplier will be raising prices on 4/1/23 around 3%.
- Dupont Styrofoam rigid insulation is still scheduled to increase 10% on 4/1/23.
- USG Interiors will increase ceiling grid by 10% on 4/10/23.
- Sashco, manufacturer of many of our caulks and sealants (Lexel, Through the Roof, Big Stretch, Slab, etc.), will increase prices 4-10% 5/1/23.
- -Clark Dietrich, our metal stud vendor, has increases announced of 10% each month for March, April and May!

Quote to Think About:

“Very little ‘good’ comes easily. There’s always work, and sacrifice and cost involved in success.”

Words Worth Reading:

What Will Matter

By Michael Josephson

Ready or not, some day it will all come to an end.
There will be no more sunrises, no minutes, hours or days.
All the things you collected, whether treasured or forgotten will pass to someone else.
Your wealth, fame and temporal power will shrivel to irrelevance.
It will not matter what you owned or what you were owed.
Your grudges, resentments, frustrations and jealousies will finally disappear.
So too, your hopes, ambitions, plans and to-do lists will expire.
The wins and losses that once seemed so important will fade away.
It won't matter where you came from or what side of the tracks you lived on at the end.
It won't matter whether you were beautiful or brilliant.
Even your gender and skin color will be irrelevant.

So what will matter?
How will the value of your days be measured?

What will matter is not what you bought but what you built, not what you got but what you gave.
What will matter is not your success
but your significance.

What will matter is not what you learned
but what you taught.
What will matter is every act of integrity,
compassion, courage, or sacrifice
that enriched, empowered or encouraged others to emulate your example.

What will matter is not your competence
but your character.
What will matter is not how many people you knew,
but how many will feel a lasting loss when you're gone.
What will matter is not your memories
but the memories that live in those who loved you.
What will matter is how long you will be remembered, by whom and for what.

Living a life that matters doesn't happen by accident.
It's not a matter of circumstance but of choice.

Choose to live a life that matters.
