Clearance

In conjunction with the Ilion Days celebration this year, July 15-23, we will be holding an inventory clearance sale to reduce our mis-ordered special ordered inventory items. Most will be windows, doors and kitchen cabinets, but there is a wide variety of items we have accumulated and would like to sell. The attraction is that most items will be sold at or below our purchase cost.

Commodities Update:

- Panels: OSB, from what I'm reading, may be gaining more strength due to higher demand, although we have not seen that to be the case in our market area yet. SYP plywood, after weeks of minor increases, has been a bit weaker in price.
- Dimension lumber: SPF seems to have found a more solid footing and has been commanding higher prices in the last two weeks. I would not be surprised to see this trend continue for the next month or so. SYP lumber (PT) has remained relatively stable with 5/4 decking and 2x12 among the few items priced higher than usual.
- In general, we're seeing a number of commodity building materials and hardware items decreasing in price!

New Inventory Items:

- Delta Prelude toilet kit 1.28GPF white
- complete display of Sharkbite plumbing fittings

Quote to Think About:

"You can't wait until life isn't hard anymore before you decide to be happy."

Beautiful young singer known as Nightbirde, at her audition on America's Got Talent, while she was battling cancer. She passed away only months later on 2/19/22.

Words Worth Reading:

(Instagram post by an older, gray haired, wrinkled woman)

"I was going to tell you something. I just realized I've reached the last years of
'I'll be so glad when ...'. I wasted so much time on that.

'I'll be so glad when they're out of diapers'.

'I'll be so glad when they start school'.

'I'll be so glad when they're out of school'.

'I'll be so glad when this...when that...when we can retire'.

If I could tell you one thing- and I'm not trying to be that wise old woman giving you advice- but if I could tell you one thing... don't postpone joy. Find your joy in what's happening today, because that's where joy lies".

Brain Builder: See if you can figure it out!

What three colors have no other words that rhyme with them?

Hardware humor:

I don't know where he is...He was here a minute ago when I was talking about painting the bedrooms.
