Commodities Update:

- Panels: OSB prices, in the words of one expert, have “shot up” as many mills are off the market and lead times are extending further. Costs are up $5-6 per piece on 7/16 OSB! SYP plywood continues at a steady pace with prices continuing to firm.
- Dimension: SPF lumber also continues its upward climb. This market may be seeing its summertime high demand in sight and may not let up anytime soon. SYP (pressure treated) has been in “seesaw” mode with some dimensions up and some down.
- Looks like roofing shingles may be rising 4-6% this month.
- OC Foamular has announced a 10% increase in foam board (extruded polystyrene) for April 8. While our vendor, Dupont, has not yet announced, don’t be surprised to see them follow suit.
- Rockwool and fiberglass insulation continue to have long lead times. Expect this to continue for the next 2-3 months.
- Clark Dietrich has announced another 10% increase

Hardware Humor:

From a Dave Barry column 1994

Income tax time is here again and I’m sure that the number one question on the minds of millions of anxious taxpayers is: Do we really have a new Internal Revenue Service commissioner named “Fred”?

I am pleased to report that, yes, we do. In fact, if you look on page two of your IRS Form 1040 Instruction Booklet, written by nuclear physicists, you’ll find a nice letter from Commissioner Fred, in which he states on behalf of the fine men and women and attack dogs at the IRS: “Let us know if we can do more.”

I know I speak for taxpayers everywhere when I say “No! Really, Fred. You’ve done enough.” I’m thinking of such helpful IRS innovations as the Wrong Answer Hotline, wherein, if you’re having trouble understanding the IRS Taxpayer Assistance Program, and in a matter of seconds, thanks to computerized electronics, you are placed on hold for several hours before finally being connected to trained IRS personnel dispensing tax advice that is statistically no more likely to being correct than if you asked Buster the Wonder Horse to indicate the answer by stomping the dirt.

Ha ha! Speaking as a married person filing jointly, let me stress that I am JUST KIDDING here because I know the folks at the IRS have a terrific sense of humor. Down at headquarters they often pass the time while waiting for their cattle prods to recharge by sending hilarious tax related jokes to each other in triplicate on IRS Humorous Anecdote Form 1092-37SNORT.

Words Worth Reading:

“Disrespect invites disrespect. Violence incites violence. When the powerful use their position to bully others, we all lose. It was that moment, when the person asking to sit in the most respected seat in our country (the former President), imitated a disabled reporter—someone he outranked in privilege, power and the capacity to fight back. It kind of broke my heart when I saw it and I still can’t get it out of my head because it wasn’t in a movie— it was in real life. And this instinct to humiliate, when it’s modeled by someone in the public platform, by someone powerful, it filters down into everybody’s life because it kind of gives permission for other people to do the same thing.”

Meryl Streep

Quote To Think About:

“The greatest ethical test that we’re ever going to face is how we treat those who are at our mercy.”

Lyn White

“The world will not be destroyed by those who do evil but by those who watch them without doing anything.” Albert Einstein
