Words worth reading:

We convince ourselves that life will be better after we get married, have a baby, then another. Then we are frustrated that the kids aren't old enough and we'll be more content when they are. After that we are frustrated that we have teenagers to deal with.

We will certainly be happy when they are out of that stage. We tell ourselves that our life will be complete when our spouse gets his or her act together, when we get a nicer car or are able to go on a nice vacation, or when we retire. The truth is, there's no better time to be happy than right now. If not now, when?

Your life will always be filled with challenges. It's best to admit this to yourself and decide to be happy anyway. One of the best quotes comes from Alfred D Souza. He said, "For a long time it had seemed to me that life was about to begin- real life. But there was always some obstacle in the way, something to be gotten through first, some unfinished business, time still to be served, a debt to be paid. Then life would begin. At last it dawned on me that these obstacles were my life."

This perspective should help us see that there is no way to happiness. Happiness is the way. So treasure every moment you have. And treasure it more because you shared it with someone special enough to spend your time with. Stop waiting until you lose ten pounds, until you have kids, until your kids leave the house, until you start work, until you retire, until you're off welfare, until you've had a drink, or until you've sobered up. Decide that there is no better time than right now to be happy. Happiness is a journey, not a destination.

Work like you don't need the money.

Love like you've never been hurt.

Dance like no one's watching.

Commodities Update:

Dimension lumber: All species are lingering on the low side of the price spectrum. For all the talk of tariffs, duties, curtailments and interest rate cuts, the price of lumber remains surprisingly low. With our northeast building season wrapping up its last good weeks, if you have needs for forest products, now would be a good time to buy.

Panels: Much the same for SYP plywood and OSB. Prices are very attractive compared to where we started the year.

Big Timber construction fasteners have announced an increase in its products to take effect 10/1/25 caused by tariff issues and a change in the US dollar to foreign exchange rates.

It's still a ways away but our bagged Portland and Masonry cements vendor has announced a $.50/bag and $.40/bag increase respectively, for 1/1/26.

We'll start seeing Stanley Black & Decker (Bostitch) tools increase by 10% starting 10/1/25.

Dad joke of the month:

I gave my handyman a to-do list, but he only did jobs 1, 3 and 5.

Turns out he only does odd jobs.

Who am I to judge?

Hardware Humor:

Tim said the customer service at the big box store was fast. Yeah, he said he finally found someone to ask for help and that person ran away really fast.
