Commodities Update:

*Dimension lumber: Seems a mixed bag this month, Many SPF dimensions were down this month with the clear exception of 2x6 which was up noticeably and even hard to source. SYP (PT) generally was softer in pricing but the downward direction was beginning to ease toward the end of the month. Our main treater reports business to be very brisk.

*Panels: OSB continues its steady course pricewise as does SYP plywood although the price difference between the two is very striking.

*Gypsum: USG is announcing another increase in joint treatment products (compounds, textures, primers, plasters, and accessories) effective 9/14/26. No % increase has been released as of this writing.

*Siding: Georgia Pacific vinyl siding made by ProVia surprised us with a 5% increase 8/1/26 which is currently being phased in to our retail prices.

*Insulation: Looks like Knauf is trying to reapply the fiberglass insulation increase that was previously postponed. They are looking for a 6% increase. Let's see if this one sticks.

*Metals: This might be ten months in a row that Clark Dietrich has announced steel stud price increases. Usually they are 10%! Grabber, our main screws vendor has announced a 6% increase for 10/12/26. As has been mentioned in past months, metals (steel, aluminum, copper and more) are becoming quite expensive.

*Bagged cements: With the tariff war in process now we would not be surprised to see bagged Portland and Masonry cements increase again soon. Many of our Portland/masonry cements come from Canada.

Dad Joke of the Month:

A man shouts frantically into the phone to his wife's doctor "My wife is pregnant and her contractions are only two minutes apart."

"Is this her first child?" asks the doctor.

"No" he shouts, "this is her husband!"

Words Worth Reading:

"Somewhere" (from the play West Side Story)

Composed by Leonard Bernstein

Lyrics by Stephen Sondheim

There's a place for us
Somewhere a place for us
Peace and quiet and open air
Wait for us
Somewhere

There's a time for us
Some day a time for us
Time together
And time to spare
Time to learn
Time to care
Someday

Somewhere
We'll find a new way of living
We'll find a way of forgiving
Somewhere

There's a place for us
A time and place for us
Hold my hand and we're halfway there
Hold my hand and I'll take you there
Somehow
Someday
Somewhere

(If you want to see a very moving performance of this song, check out YouTube to see Carolyn Hao and Henry Wu sing and play this song at the Harvard Commencement ceremony. Well worth the visit!)

Quote to Think About:

"Honesty is the first chapter in the book of wisdom."

Thomas Jefferson
